DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-45 are pending. Claims 1-45 are rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Emil Abrascid, Data Manager Online, Copyright 1999.

Catania Helium, of IBM Italy disclosed e-business on demand, which over the next few years will make it possible for IBM to leverage information technology and provide recommendations to enterprises for requirements for purchasing technologies and applications utilizing demand, i.e. usage, for example optimizing the server resources and personal computers. The inherent characteristics of e-business on demand are demonstrated in IBM e-business on demand: the next wave of IT Services by IBM Global Services, January 2002.
